

MINNESOTA BROADCASTING HALL OF FAME
ANNOUNCES 2017 INDUCTEES

SUMMARY: The Minnesota Broadcasting Hall of Fame will induct five new members in 2017. Inductees are selected based on their unique and outstanding contributions to broadcasting in Minnesota.

2017 INDUCTEES:

John Hines - 45 years in Twin Cities broadcasting, including stations WWTC, KSTP, WLOL, K-102 and WCCO.

Paul Magers - KARE-TV ANCHOR from 1983-2003. Recently retired from KCBS-TV in Los Angeles.

Joe Soucheray - Hosts radio shows Garage Logic and Sports Talk on ESPN1500am radio.

Paul Stagg - 50 years of broadcast experience, including stations KLLR, WQPM, WKLK, KWLM and Lakeland Broadcasting.

Joan Steffend - Television and radio for four decades, including stations KBJR-TV, KARE-TV, HGTV, and myTalk 107.1fm.

INDUCTION CEREMONY: Saturday evening, September 30, 2017 at the Pavék Museum in Saint Louis Park, Minnesota. Radio and TV personality Cathy Wurzer will emcee. The ceremony not only celebrates the careers of these distinguished broadcasters, but also raises operating funds for the Pavék Museum. Tickets are $150 each and include a one-year sponsorship to the Museum.

BACKGROUND: The Minnesota Broadcasting Hall of Fame has inducted 194 members beginning with the inaugural class of 2001. The Minnesota Broadcasting Hall of Fame is a service of the Pavék Museum. The Pavék Museum was established in 1988 to preserve and promote the history and science of electronic communication, as well as the values of Minnesota's broadcast industry. The Pavék Museum and the Minnesota Broadcasting Hall of Fame are located at 3517 Raleigh Ave, Saint Louis Park, MN 55416.
